Our Company

---

After 14 years of activity and constant presence in the foodservice equipment market, Genus Dei S.r.l. continues its commitment and dedication to providing innovation and quality to its customers.

In this special edition, Genus Dei S.r.l. will accompany you on a journey through Italian art, to discover the results of its own production
Made in Italy.

Each item is entirely produced in Italy and made of material certified for food contact, meeting all the requirements of the European regulations in force.

Our main goal is to provide material that is resistant, durable, safe and practical to use.

The experience we have gained over the years has allowed us to expand our range of products and our distribution network, currently active in more than 40 countries around the world.

Trays

With polypropylene trays certified for food contact, Genus Dei S.r.l. inaugurated its factory way back in 2008. With a unique and captivating design, they are available in 4 collections, 18 models and 40 colors, representing the ideal solution for any type of use.

Cases

The line of food-grade polyethylene cases is expanded with a new collection for the transport of food and doughs, to be added to the solid existing line of closed and perforated cases, ideal for storing doughs even at low temperatures or easily differentiating them.

Racks

The polypropylene racks for washing dishes represent one of the most innovative solutions on the market: with their extensibility in height, they adapt to any type of glass and thanks to the customizable compartments they are also ideal for other types of dishes. Also useful for storage and handling, together with their complementary accessories.

Trays

Manlio Rho was one of the greatest Italian exponents of Abstractionism, who marked the beginning of a real revolution, with the use of a visual language of shapes, colors and geometric lines, just like the trays signed by Genus Dei: an explosion of shapes and colors, with simple and defined lines.

[1935, Composition,
Manlio Rho]

Cases

Like the more sinuous lines and the finest marbles used by Gian Lorenzo Bernini in his Baroque sculptures, likewise Genus Dei cases are created and take shape. More resistant, with an innovative design and eternally white, that do not get yellow over time.

[1622-1625, Apollo and Daphne,
Gian Lorenzo Bernini]

- Cases in Polyethylene (PE-HD) and Polypropylene (PP) certified for food contact use
  - Compliant with current European regulations
  - They do not absorb odors and are easy to clean
    - Resistant and light
- Raised bottom to avoid contact with other stacked cases
- Perfectly stackable to prevent the entry of dust and impurities
  - Ideal for storage and transport
  - Professional dishwasher safe
- Resistant to thermal shocks from -40 °C to + 80 °C

How to choose the right rack

1

Measure the diameter

Measure the maximum diameter of the glass to determine the size of the compartments

2x2 = 4 compartments of 226 mm (from 147 to 226 mm)
3x3 = 9 compartments of 146 mm (from 114 to 146 mm)
4x4 = 16 compartments of 113 mm (from 89 to 113 mm)
5x5 = 25 compartments of 88 mm (from 74 to 88 mm)
6x6 = 36 compartments of 73 mm (from 64 to 73 mm)
7x7 = 49 compartments of 63 mm (from 0 to 63 mm)

2

Measure the height

Measure the height of the glass to determine the type of KIT.

KIT 1 from 0 to 65 mm
KIT 2 from 65 to 120 mm
KIT 3 from 120 to 240 mm
KIT 4 from 240 to 340 mm

Differentiate the racks with colored tops

It may happen that glasses with different shapes, have the same diameter and the same height, requiring the same type of rack. To differentiate the contents of the same racks, colored tops are the ideal solution.

Rack accessories

---

Leonardo da Vinci with the masterful Renaissance work Portrait of Mona Lisa, developed the aerial perspective to describe a landscape in the distance, making it assume its own autonomy. Just like our accessories for racks which, with their own identity and independence, represent both the fundamentals and the necessary complements to the Genus Dei racks.

[1503-1505,
